

Jerry Leon Biddle

January 29, 1940 - February 14, 2025

Jerry Leon Biddle passed away Friday February 14, 2025, in Pueblo Colorado. Jerry was born in Tucumacari, New Mexico to L.L. (Slim) and Helen Biddle on January 29, 1940. He graduated from Vega Texas Independent School then attended college where he learned how to bull ride, which he was passionate about. After college, he served in the Army as an MP dog handler.

After the Army, Jerry married Pat Brewer. They moved to Colorado with daughter Kimberly. 12 years later, daughter Kristie was born. Jerry worked for Mother's Cookies until his retirement. He was affectionately known as the "Cookie Man" to his customers and all who knew him. Sadly, in 1992, his precious wife, Pat, passed away.

Jerry was an active member of the First Baptist Church. He was active in assisting the handicapped to exercise classes and contributed to other areas as needed. He was one of the best men around and spent most of his life taking care of others while still managing to do all he did.

He met a fellow member of the church, Charlene Brotherton, and married in August 1995. In addition to their church work, they enjoyed traveling together. Charlene passed away in May 2022.

Jerry is preceded in death by his wife Pat, wife Charlene, and sister Phyllis Biddle Gruner. He is survived by sisters Elizabeth Ann Brown (Billy Don) and Nancy Jefferies (John), daughters Kristie Snook (Chad), Kimberly Daigneault (Jason), stepdaughter Regina Cardinelli (Steve), stepson Stephen Brotherton (Carolyn), along with six grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

MH

“ I knew Jerry and his wives from the First Baptist exercise group. He was so kind to my husband and myself. We always thought of him as such a gentleman. More recently I enjoyed visiting with him at the Villa. It was an honor to know Jerry and to celebrate his homegoing. Blessings to his family. Mary H.

Mary Hart - March 10, 2025 at 12:54 PM