

Jerry W. Earnhart

November 5, 1942 - November 23, 2022

Jerry W. Earnhart passed away on November 23, 2022. He is survived by 3 daughters, Tammy, Jerri Ann, and Rhonda. He has 2 sisters and 1 brother, Lou Ann, Bruce, and Angela. Numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews. Preceded in death by his mother Billie and father Guy Earnhart, grandson Dusty and Niece Sara. Jerry was known as the Snowcone Man, as he was the first (Snowcone driver) in Pueblo. Worked mostly on the south side, all through his high school years. After graduation, he became a residential and commercial painter, until he became disabled because of strokes and heart problems.