“ Dad, you were the best father I could ever ask for. I'm going to miss our coffee mornings. And watching Westerns together. I love you so much. But I know the Lord is with you now and you are free from that sickness. Til we meet again. ”

“ Well Jerry was a tough brother in law, and he had the funny giggle. I watched him from a distance as we live in a different state, he loved Lois, and Corrie with his Big heart and the best way he knew how. I loved his humor at life, He was #9 of 10 kids and a goodlooking man.

We enjoyed meeting at sister Donna's house and I can smell all the cooking she did and best bacon and coffee. Kids running around and Lois and I chatting as Donna feed us all.

Jerry and bro's went off to the bar- El Rayos and came home with some great chicken at times and of course caught heck from being out on the town as us wife's did often.

We had a lot of fun at Pueblo go cart track,
With the Harp family.

Jerry loved his mom with a deep Love.

Lots of stories too many to tell.

We loved Him so very much. Glad to know,

Jerry accepted Christ as his Saviour and we'll met you again

Brother, enjoy heaven and a pain free Life .

Leroy and Cheri Harp xoxo
