Jerry was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, son, brother, brother-in-law, nino, and caring uncle who truly cherished his family. He loved the outdoors, especially fishing and hunting. He always had a smile on his face. He enjoyed going for drives to get out of the house and soak up life's simple pleasures. Jerry respected and cherished the many friends he made throughout his life. He had a special place in his heart for Art and Berlinda Gonzales. His laugh was contagious and he never missed a chance to make others feel welcomed and loved. His wife and kids were the center of his world and he was always proud to show it. He adored his many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and God child. He shared a special bond with his nieces and nephews, each of whom looked up to him in their own unique way. He had a strength that inspired everyone who knew him, along with a sense of humor that could brighten any moment, and he never stopped cheering for the Broncos.

Those who knew Jerry will forever remember his kindness and warmth and the joy he brought into every day. Though he will be deeply missed, we take comfort in knowing his spirit will continue to guide and watch over us, and the love he shared will live on in our hearts forever.
