“ I first met John as a patient. He quickly became a dear friend. I loved him like a father. He had a heart the size of Texas, and oh boy did he love his family. He touched so many lives and will be missed. It was a honor to be his friend.

“ Our thoughts & prayers go out to the entire family as they grieve John's passing. We truly cherished his partnership for many, many years of towing service with the Colorado State Patrol, which continues still today. John was always up for a great conversation when I'd see him in the yard when we lived in Belmont. His business sense and compassion for others will be missed. Rest in peace John!
