“ Lost track of John many years ago. Went to high school together. Knew he was a high level genius. ”

“ John and I shared many adventures together, camping frequently in the area around what is now the lake. We shared many nights in a pup tent waiting out thunderstorms with lightning, thunder and hail, and hunting for geodes. We also sat together as the foundation of the trombone section, and had most of our classes together for three years at Freed. Rest in Peace John! ”
