

Joseph Pantaleo

August 25, 1934 - May 10, 2016

Joseph Pantaleo Jr, 81 was born August 25, 1934 and arrived at his eternal fishing destination May 10, 2016. Preceded in death by parents, Guisseppe and Josephine Pantaleo; and sibling, Russel Pantaleo. Survived by his wife, Sheila of 59 years; children, Joseph (Gina) Pantaleo, Pam Pantaleo, and Charmaine (Gary) Filmore; grandchildren, Johnee (Gail), Tiffani (Will), Christopher (Kendra), Matthew, Michelle, Katlyn, Morgan; great grandchildren, Joey, Tommie, Jagger, Gaige, and Cash; siblings, Eva (Junior), Josephine, Fritzie, Rosemary, Jenny (Charlie); numerous cousins, nieces and nephews; special nephews and nieces, Guy, Johnny, Chad, Anissa, and Ryan; brothers and sister in law, Greg, Gary and Rhonda. Joe was a lifetime farmer and owned his own landscaping business for 45 years. He touched many hearts and made countless lifelong friends and fans through his many years of growing and roasting chili. He looked forward to the fall harvest of chili and roasting. He especially looked forward to the tradition created by families during their annual visit to The Great Pumpkin Patch to share memories and good times with him. Joe enjoyed spending time with his family. He was an avid hunter and fisherman, enjoyed cruising the countryside in his truck, and watching boxing, and MMA fighting. He is now reunited with his longtime buddy, John Dagnillo, who has been saving a fishing spot for him. Viewing will be 4:00pm to 6:00pm, Mon May 16, 2016 followed by Rosary at 6:00pm. Both at St Joseph Church. Mass of the Resurrection will be 10:00am, Tue, May 17, 2016 also St. Joseph Church. Interment to follow at Roselawn Cemetery.

“ The memories I hold the most dear are from my own childhood spent on the farm with Uncle Joe and Aunt Sheila. Chad and I used to have so much fun out there with our cousins Pam, Charmaine and Joey. We would jump on the trampoline, watch Night of the Living Dead in black and white (before zombies were even cool) and Uncle Joe would put on a monster mask and scratch at the window and scare the life out of us! Lol. RIP Uncle Joe. My heart is with you all at this difficult time. Love, Sissy
