

Judith Ann DeFusco

September 22, 1942 - December 4, 2016

Judith Ann (Chorak) DeFusco, 74, departed this life on December 4, 2016. Judy was born on September 22, 1942 in Pueblo, CO to Michael and Anna May Chorak. She was proud to be in the first graduating class from South High in 1960. She married Tracy DeFusco in 1967, and they began their family. Judy would tell you her biggest accomplishment in life were her four children. She worked hard as a stay at home mom for 16 years before entering the workforce, where she excelled as a medical transcriptionist. She retired in 2005 to be able to take care of her grandchildren full time.

Judy is preceded in death by her parents, brother James Chorak, and beloved son, Leide. She is survived by her children, Chris (Sylvia), Marc (Maribel Ramirez), and Mianna (Santino Oliva), and daughter in law, Wendy DeFusco; grandchildren, Ashton, Kaylee, Michael, Amanda, Jake, Nicholas, Matthew, Robert, Mya, Erianna, Laney, Emery, Lynlei, and Sutton; brother, Michael (Patti) Chorak; as well as many nieces and cousins who loved her dearly.

A Mass of the Resurrection will be held 10:00am, Saturday, December 10, 2016 at the Shrine of St. Therese with a interment to follow at Roselawn Cemetery. In lieu of food and flowers, donations may be made to the Colorado chapter of Concerns for Police Survivors (COPS).
