

Judith Ann Martinez (Conley)

January 9, 1948 - December 2, 2022

Judith Ann Martinez (Conley), 74, of Pueblo, Colo. Occupation: Professor of English. Born: January 9, 1948, in Laconia, N.H. Died: Dec. 2, 2022. She was a stranger to none, loved her daughters greatly and was very generous with gifting handmade crochet afghan blankets and baby clothes. She got her doctorate (minus dissertation) in English and was very proud of that. She loved using big words that no one else knew. She truly loved and prayed for her entire family and her friends. She was loved by many. Preceded in death by mother, Lurline (Lynn) Blanchard; father, Euclid (Doc) Blanchard; and brother, Theodore (Ted) Blanchard. Survived by four daughters, Leslie Conley-Bailargeon, Michelle (Conley) Williams and spouse Ricky Williams, Trish (Conley) Fisher and spouse Devin Fisher, and Carelle Conley. She had 12 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren. Service for Celebration of Life will be held at 10:30 a.m. Friday, Dec. 16, at Widefield Community Bible Church, 702 Quebec St., Colorado Springs, Colo.
