“ It has been years since June participated in the annual YMCA craft show on Albany. Every year since I think of her when I hang my Christmas spider on my tree that she made and I always will. She was talented, kind, and generous. R.I.P - Cheri Ward

“ June was not my "Grandma" but I loved her like she was. Grandma, was the best crocheter I ever meet. I remember about 7 years ago I was struggling really badly with a pattern for a baby snuggle sac for a gift for my new baby niece, that I just couldn't grasp, it was driving me insane. I asked Grandma for her help and she did it with ease. My sister in-law had my nieces newborn pictures done with my niece in that snuggle sac. It was beautiful. Grandma will be forever hold a special place in every one that knew her hearts. Love Katie

“ I will always remember when Aspen and I were younger and would play on the piano and our parents would be telling us not to when GG would let us. I also remember when all of us girls would be hanging out with her and she would give each of us a handful of bubblegum out of this huge tub of it that she would keep. I will always cherish the crochet items that were made by her. We all have our good memories with GG, and GG will always remain in our hearts- Love Autumn
