“ Aunt Kathryn was the sister to my step dad. She welcomed me into the Ingo family with open arms and a lot of love. We had many talks together making me always comfortable when we visited.

When my mother married her brother I was shy and afraid, because of her that changed, I began to feel I belonged. I always chose to travel with her when our families went to the mountains, because I knew she loved having me with her. She truly was a kind and caring person whom I loved very much.

Even though I was unable to attend her funeral, because our car was in the shop, (wheel bearings being replaced), I was there in mind, heart and prayer.

You will be missed Aunt Kathryn, but I truly know you are safe in Gods care.

Love and Prayers, Phyllis
