“ Lee was and awesome man and grandpa to my son JP and daughter Nuri it breaks my heart that my son JP just found out that his grandpa pass away a month ago and nobody ever contacted me or my son. He will be deeply miss and he was loved very much. My Son was overseas and just came back to the states to find out the his grandpa pass away. Our hearts are broken right now to find out the news on my sons cell phone when entered the states. Well Lee you are now at peace and we will always remember you in our hearts and memories. Love you always from the Patient Mestas Family.

That is odd how Jimmy, Mona and Albert all knew that he was in hospice a week prior to his death and the day he died! Take it up with them.
