“ Mr. Cabrera,
A man of high standards, who made time for each of his students! I was one of his students at PCC-in Typing I, II and III....(that tells you how long ago it was when I was in his class). When I think about my time at PCC as a student, Mr. Cabera, is very much part of those memories. Tough but fair, a sense of humor and a style that was his own. Mr. Cabrera, you taught me how important it was to do a good quality job. When I got frustrated with that "lovely" Typing 3 Simulated Office Packet, you told me, "Juanita, when you go to work for an office you will have to do these things for your boss." I replied, "Mr. Cabrera, I am going to be the boss!" You laughed and said... "I bet you will be." Whenever I saw him walking about town after he retired, he would always stop and we would share a moment. I always walked away feeling pretty good about the day. His positive spirit was contagious. Rest in Peace Leon, we will see each other again.

“ He was a friend of friends. We shared many laughs being in the same office for years which really was on old storage closet! Every time they had to go up on the roof, they had to step on Leon's desk. We were always laughing because then they put the part timers in our closet! One time KW had static electricity and a pair of nylon undies stuck to her slacks and then they dropped off by Leon's desk! Talk about a rumor getting started! But we figured it out as the day worn on...but we still laughed about it for years. I know Leon is in a better place now and he would never come back now after seeing the next life. Leon I will miss you ... But your fears and suffering are over. God bless you, Leon. Not to say bye but "see you again soon."

“ Uncle you will be missed by many but you are now at rest with the father in heaven! I reflect on your life and what I remember most about you is your kind and gentle loving heart. You were a very intelligent man and I'm thankful for God Blessing our family with you for the time he did! I will always remember the time I called you for help with my homework and I would tell you uncle I don't get it but you patiently help me until I did... The laughter in you voice and that beautiful smile you had about you...

Love always in my heart your,
Niece Christina Cabrera
