

Lynn Dennis "Nino" Madrid

November 13, 1952 - September 30, 2022

Lynn Dennis "Nino" Madrid, 69, went to be with the Lord on September 30, 2022. Survived by his wife, Tricia; daughters, DD (Lawrence) Duarte, Erin (Josh) Anderson, Christina (Carlos) Alarid; grandchildren, Tylynn, Nicholas (Dani), Samuel, Ruby, CJ, Victoria; and numerous brothers, sisters, and extended family. Preceded in death by his parents, Lee and Nora Madrid, and his siblings, Lilian, Pepo, Richard, and Elaine. Nino enjoyed fishing, camping, listening to oldies music, watching the Rockies and watching his girls and grandkids play sports. He was a 1971 graduate of Centennial High School and retired from PCC as a groundskeeper. He was a devoted husband, dad, and papa who loved his family. Special thanks to Littleton Adventist Hospital, Rocky Mountain Cancer Center, and Judy and Steve Roybal. Services will be held at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Pueblo, Colo. Viewing will begin at 9:00 A.M. on Tuesday, October 11, 2022 with Rosary starting at 9:15. Mass will begin at 10:00 A.M. Interment to follow at Roselawn Cemetery.

“ Nino and I are first cousins. We went fishing to eleven mile last year and since then we have become very close. I enjoyed talking to him twice weekly. We called each other "Walleye". I will miss him. May God grant him eternal rest.
