

Marcella "Marcie" Alarid

June 20, 1952 - September 1, 2015

Marcie was born on June 20, 1952 in the small town of San Acacio, CO. She lived 63 long full years, her time on this earth was packed with life. She was one of 13 children, 8 of which remain today; Mable, Joyce, Errol, Lawrence, Frank, Debbie, Bobby, and Anthony. Her siblings Richard, Linda, Gary and Larry preceded her in heaven. She has two daughters, Alicia & Jessica, and one very special grandson, Ezekiel who she adored with all of her heart. Marcie was very outgoing and made a lot of friends throughout her lifetime. Many people were attracted to her because she was a kind, non-judgmental, open and positive person that had a glow surrounding her. She brought such a strong energy. To say she was a helpful and giving person is an understatement. She was always there for the people in her life that needed it. She was a strong person, someone you could count on. She was also a loving and thoughtful mother who would do anything for her girls. Alicia and Jessica feel that having her as a mother was a blessing and they were fortunate to have her as their teacher.

Even though she was one of 13 children, Marcie stood out and was very much an individual. She was very involved with her friends, her church, her work, and most of all her family. Through her life she overcame many obstacles with grace, setting an example and reminding us all that we can be stronger than we think we are. The words I would use to describe Marcie are sincere, loving, strong, beautiful, tenacious, faithful, endearing, fun, and comforting; she was truly a light for many people in this world.

Marcie made the best carrot cakes. I remember when she made mine for my birthday and she knew that I did not like Philly cream cheese so she just sprinkled it with powdered sugar and lit some trick candles. She was always so nice to me and very funny. I am going to miss her soooooo much. Alicia and Jessica you were the world to your mom and she thanked God constantly for the gift of you two and Ezekial too. God Bless you all.

Marcie was a student of mine at Spann School, when she was in the Fourth & Fifth Grades. She was an excellent student with a sweet and wonderful behavior! She was a joy to have in the class, and always cared for others! Later when she was grown, and became a Nurse at Parkview Hospital, where she excelled in her profession, she also raised two wonderful daughters, and was active in the Children's Church at Praise Assembly of God! I have attended there for many years and saw how she cared for the children, and how she loved her Savior, Jesus Christ! Marcie was a very special person, and I will miss her, but now she is with her Lord for all eternity! Praise God!
