

Marcia Ailene (Maher) Young

September 8, 1950 - July 5, 2025

Marcia Ailene (Maher) Young, 74, went home to be with her Savior Jesus Christ on July 5, 2025, after a lengthy illness. She was born on September 8, 1950, in Pueblo, Colorado, to John “Jack” and Frances Maher.

She is preceded in death by her parents, John and Frances; and her sisters, Myrna Silengo and Theresa Maher.

She is survived by her sister, Sheila Seme; and brother, John Michael Maher; along with several nieces and nephews who will always hold a special place in her heart.

Marcia leaves behind her beloved children, sons, Charles “Charlie” Maher (Jodi) and Zachary Young (Jess); and her only daughter, Chamar Maher, with whom she resided. She also leaves behind her cherished grandchildren, Niklaus, Arloh, Autumn, Naomi, Nikki , and Tyler.

Marcia will be fondly remembered for her dedicated service to the community, especially through her many years as a beloved bartender and banquet hostess at the Ramada Inn. Her warm presence and tireless work left a lasting impression on all who knew her.

Marcia's true legacy, however, lies in her unwavering faith, compassionate heart, and boundless generosity. As a devoted foster parent, she opened her heart and home to many children over the years, profoundly impacting countless lives. She also served as an Activities Director at Belmont Lodge, where her energy and care enriched the lives of many residents.

She wore many hats throughout her life, but none brought her more joy or pride than being a mother and grandmother. It was her favorite job of all. A Celebration of Life will be held on September 27th for more information please visit the "In Memory of Marcia Young" Facebook page. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.
