“ Dear Joe, Frank, Elizabeth, Robert and Richard,

Your mother lives large in my memory. She was like a second mother to me when growing up and a very close friend to my own mother. I am sorry for your loss but know that she is remembered with great love by me and my family.

“ Elizabeth, Rick and other family members, As you mourn the loss of your mother please know that my prayers are with you. She was my VERY FAVORITE bus driver. She always had a smile and a friendly hello when she picked us up. She was more like a mother to those whom she safely drove to and from school each day. After the school years, she made it a point to stop us and inquire about how our lives were going. She was a great lady. I am truly blessed to have shared a part of my life with her.
