

Mark Joseph Riggio

May 11, 1962 - March 3, 2026

Mark Joseph Riggio

Mark Riggio was born in Torrence, California May 11, 1962. As a toddler he moved with his parents to Colorado. Mark passed away 3/3/2026 at Sangre de Cristo Hospice in Pueblo survived by his wife Annika Riggio and his son Daniel Riggio. Preceded in death by his younger brother, Cary Riggio, his father Samuel Riggio, and his mother Judith Riggio. His living brother, Dean Riggio, is living in Colorado Springs. Mark was a great sports fan, especially a great Bronco football fan, He did not miss a game if he could help it. His proud moments was when he attended Fairview Highschool in Boulder Colorado. He took pride in playing the drums in the marching band. Mark attended Colorado University during his college years and graduated with a Bachelor Degree in Communication. Also, Mark was a devoted father and a husband. He always put his family first and will be missed. Special thanks to Sangre de Cristo Hospice, Dr. Abner Fernandez, and staff who showed so much compassion during a difficult time. Memorial contributions may be made in memory of Mark to the Humane Society through the funeral home office.
