“ I remember Marvin helping me get a load of sod in his Ford truck. As we were approaching the sod farm, we missed the turn so Marvin made a hard left and we drove into a shallow ditch and got stuck. We were both okay, and I started laughing when Marvin said, "it ain't gonna hurt it. This is a ford truck." He wasn't worried about the truck in the least. Less than five minutes later a farmer on his tractor pulled us out of the ditch. We loaded the sod and started home, Marvin looked at me and said, "I told you it ain't gonna hurt it." So we both started laughing. It is true that Marvin would be there for anybody, anytime of the day. I will miss him. May God be with you during this difficult time. John Traviero

“ Marv is the best big brother that anyone could have. My family is blessed to have such a wonderful man in our lives. Marv was a kind man. He would help anyone. Marv loved his church, going to mud bogging and cheering on his nephews, hunting and going to auctions. I could call him at anytime of the day or night and he would come to my rescue. He is now in heaven with my other brother and Dad. I miss him everyday.
