

Mary Alice "Charmaine" Cordova

March 2, 1949 - December 30, 2023

Mary Alice "Charmaine" Cordova, 73 of Pueblo was born March 2, 1949 and went home to the Lord on December 30, 2023. She is preceded in death by her parents, William and Pauline Cordova; step-mother, Donna Cordova; brothers, Steve, Lawrence, Frank, Rick and Dennis Cordova; and son-in-law, Danny "Tommy" Sisneros. Mary Alice is survived by the father of her children, Bernard Duran; her daughters, Bernadette (Pedro) Pacheco, Marlo Duran, Lena (Buddy) Rodriguez, and JoAnn (Gary) Martinez; grandchildren, Melissa Duran, Melanie Andrade, Malerie (Ephriam) Gonzales, Mariah (Ruben) Valdez, Destiny (Jovan) Escudero, Faith Ann Sisneros, Danny Sisneros, and Alaina Martinez; she is also survived by 17 great-grandchildren; sisters, Brenda Cordova, Geneva Vigil, and Betty (William) Franklin; brother, Donny (Donna) Martinez, as well as numerous nieces, nephews, extended family and friends. Mary Alice enjoyed cooking and baking for her family and friends. She especially loved writing poems and was working on getting them published. She was so full of love for her family that they could physically feel her love for them. She was a wonderful grandma and even better mom. Hard working and dedicated are words that come to mind when her family thinks of her, as she was an outstanding provider for her family. She was the best mom her girls could have ever asked for and they will always feel her love. Mary Alice had a close and intimate relationship with the Lord and loved attending church as often as possible. She also loved taking trips to Walmart just to shop around. Mary Alice received a Bachelor of Arts in Advocacy through Southern Colorado College and went on to work as a Youth and Women's Advocate at CASA and would attend court and assist children throughout the city of Pueblo. She loved helping children so much that she even became a foster parent. She will be forever loved and deeply missed by everyone touched by her love and generosity.

Cemetery Details

Roselawn Cemetery

1706 Roselawn Rd
Pueblo, CO 81006

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

JAN 5. 2:00 PM (MT)

Roselawn Funeral Home Chapel
1706 Roselawn Rd
Pueblo, CO 81006

Tribute Wall

CC

“ Alice had a gentle, kind spirit. She loved her girls with all of heart, and the world knew. In the next life, we gather for all eternity, God's promise.

Cynthia Cordova - January 05, 2024 at 10:57 AM

BP

My beautiful Mama was such a gentle soul she loved our mighty savior Jesus more than anyone or anything. I know she's in paradise with our heavenly Father 💕. She wrote such beautiful poems or what she called little stories about our Savior. My Mama was the most wonderful Mama anyone could ever ask for she was so kind and gentle I know me and my sister's were loved unconditionally. She will forever be a part of me I miss her so badly my heart aches to feel her hug's and kisses. I will never hear her voice again and that brings me such pain. What I wouldn't give to see her again. I love you my beautiful Mama until I take my last breath and see you in heaven.

Bernadette Pacheco - April 01, 2024 at 08:10 PM

BP

I love you

Bernadette Pacheco - April 01, 2024 at 08:12 PM

RU

My beautiful amazing grandma who I will see one day I miss her so much it's been so sad and hard without her I cry everyday when I think about her I love her so much until I die

rubyllynn - September 29, 2024 at 04:09 PM