

Mary E. DeNardo

September 11, 1923 - December 4, 2021

Mary E. DeNardo, 98, went to be with the Lord on December 4, 2021. Waiting for her in heaven are her beloved husband, John; her parents, Carl and Josephine DeGrado; sisters, Annie, Mamie, Ti, Bess, Mary and brother Fidel. Mary is survived by her two children, Sam (Christianne) DeNardo and Debbie (Bill) Been; grandchildren, Samantha and Michael; sister, Joanne; numerous nephews, nieces and special friends. Mary was born September 11, 1923, in Pueblo Colorado. She grew up working on the family farm, graduated from Pleasant View High School and worked downtown at American Furniture for many years. She married John on November 16, 1946. They spent 66 wonderful years together. In retirement, they lived part-time in Arizona where they made many friends. While John was golfing, Mary became quite skilled at Bocce ball. She was devoted to her family, strong in her faith and gave of herself unselfishly. She was a caregiver to John for many years. Her grandkids were the light of her life. She watched them grow up, cooked, and baked with them and encouraged all their dreams. She was an amazing cook, she enjoyed watching the Rockies, the Broncos, reading, crosswords, and hours of doing jigsaw puzzles. We'd like to thank the staff at Cappella for their compassionate care. Rosary will be prayed at 9:30 am with Funeral Mass to begin at 10:00 am Friday, December 10, 2021 at Our Lady of the Meadows Catholic Church. Interment to follow at Roselawn Cemetery. “ I have many fond memories of my Aunt Mary growing up. We would spend every holiday together and enjoy food and family. Aunt Mary and Uncle John visited my Mom and Dad frequently. I miss those days and all the great memories.
