“ To the family, Mary was my sister she was the best mother and wife and had a heart of gold I will miss her a lot and I am very blessed to have had her in my life. I loved her and she was a special person to all who knew her. she was very generous and kind. whatever she could do for you she would. i will miss her smile and advice she gave.They say you can,t take anything with you when you die but your knowledge and she will take a lot of that she was a very smart and educated person.To Joe and families, she loved you all and I send my condolences to you.
