“ I am sorry for your lost. The obituary was a bit vague. I am trying to find the family of a pueblo man hit by a car on this day. If this is that family please reach out to me.

“ Matt many days have come and gone since we last saw eachother and i did often think of you since we've experienced the most heartbreaking moments in our lives when we had to say goodbye to our precious son. Now its time to say goodbye to you as its time for you to be with our baby Lane. Its hard to fathom all of this but it brings peace to my heart knowing you weren't ever alone. May you rest in peace as you will never be forgotten!
