

Michael James Cordova

June 15, 1975 - May 25, 2020

Michael Cordova, 44, of Pueblo passed away May 25, 2020. Preceded in death by his brother, Dennis Cordova; grandparents, August and Kathleen Cordova, and Raymond and Marie Walters. Survived by his son, Roman Cordova; parents, David Cordova and Debbie Cordova; siblings, Jason (Ginger), Mark (Lisa), Mary (Dom) Pullara, Brian (Desiree), Lisa (Chris), Linda (Joe), and numerous nieces, nephews, and Pueblo Toyota family, and friends. Michael was a proud and loving father, son, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend. He enjoyed making people laugh and helping others out. He enjoyed family gatherings and riding the jet ski at the reservoir. He always felt the more people the merrier. If he wasn't warning people if they didn't straighten out "they would be living in a van down by the river" in his Chris Farley impression, you may also hear him talking like Rocky. Anytime you were around Mike, you took the chance of an arm wrestling challenge or just a good laugh. His energy was infectious and his laughter was loud and uplifting. There are so many memories, laughs, and cries, we all shared with Mike, leaving an imprint on so many of us. His presence will forever be deeply missed, his passion for life always admired, and his love for family and friends forever cherished. We will never forget you dear brother, son, father, and friend. Rest in peace and rest assured your love will stay in our hearts and minds forever. Due to the restrictions of COVID-19 services have taken place.

“ Mike,
For so many years and through so many trials in our lives you have been an amazing friend. I loved you like a brother and will miss talking to you for hours about nothing and everything all at once. You are one of a kind, and cannot be replaced. My life is better because you was a part of it. I will always cherish that. I can still hear you singing my dear friend. Sing with the angels. I love you!

“ *Sending our condolences to the Cordova family.
I always admired the way you doted on Roman.
You always had a smile and brought others laughter.
The countless stories from high school.
You'll be missed. Gone too soon.....
Love, Deanna & Preston Napier*

“ One time when I was staying at Aunt Debbie's and Uncle David's house during the summer, we were going to rent movies. Mikey said to get a movie called, "The Pit." Mary and I did as he said because that's the effect Mikey had on us, he was always the coolest so you did whatever he wanted. We found the movie and brought it back to the house. He just laughed and said he was only kidding and had just made it up!

“ When we were kids we watched the Exorcist together. I think it was me (Danice), DJ, Mark, Mary, Jason, Mike & Justin. We were always together because we were the oldest. Anyway, for at least 2 weeks all I heard from Mikey were quotes. Like "Demi, why you do this to me Demi?" Over and over and over! It was funny everytime he said it and just got funnier!
