

Michael Lee E. Gutierrez

May 25, 1955 - January 29, 2025

Michael Lee Edward Gutierrez, 69, born in Pueblo, CO on May 25th, 1955, passed away peacefully in his home on January 29th, 2025. He is preceded in death by his loving wife, Marian Gutierrez; mother, Victoria Rains; grandparents, Antonia and Tomas Sanchez; siblings, Shirley Vialpando, Sam Rains, Susie Rains and his beloved pets, Buster and Salty. He is survived by his two sons, Michael Jr. (Heather), and Anthony (Angelica); grandchildren, Trina (Richard), Anthony Jr. (Jamie), Amaya, Michael III, Brennan, Melody, JJ, Abby, and grandson on the way; sisters, Vickie (Victor), Sharon, Karen (Randy); brothers, George, Willie, Julian (Cindy), Sidney (Beth); father, Steve; numerous nieces and nephews, special friend, JoAnn Garcia and his dog, Dulce. Mike had a very combative spirit and loved to give his opinion (even when not asked). He loved hard and appreciated his family above all else. He loved sharing stories of the past and no matter how many time he told those stories, you always wanted to listen, because he made it worth it. He looked forward to the little things in life, like a weekly phone call from A.J., spending time with Trina, Richard, and Melody, lunch dates with his sister Sharon, hanging out with 'The Johnny's' and the family, especially Jay and Hans. Mike was a great father and taught his boys a tremendous work ethic and how to support a family, not just financially, but emotionally too. He loved sports, none more than when his boys played, but was an avid Denver Bronco fan as well. He may not have finished high school, but he showed his relentless spirit when he started his family. He worked his heart out to support his family and gave his all until his final day.
