

Nadine Samberson

October 29, 1942 - January 13, 2022

Nadine Samberson, age 79, passed away peacefully on Thursday, January 13, 2022 after a battle with cancer. She is survived by daughter, Deborah Barnes; son, Edward (Leslie) Samberson; her daughter, Sue (Rick) Martinez; four, grandchildren; and two great-granddaughters. She is preceded in death by her husband, Lory A. Samberson; son, Gary A. Samberson; sister, Irene Glover; and parents. Nadine was a devoted mother and caregiver. She enjoyed painting, knitting, spending time with her family, rooting for the Denver Broncos and naming the hummingbirds that frequented her house. She never passed up a margarita and loved laying in her pool during the summer working on her tan. We will miss her dearly, but find peace in knowing she is reunited with her son, husband, and sister. A celebration of life will be scheduled at a later date. Online condolences can be made at roselawnpueblo.org

“Robin and I loved her very much, and will forever miss her. Nadine was a ball of fire that lived life on her own terms. The memories of her at gatherings with her unique laughter and sparkling eyes will never fade from our memories. It is never goodbye, only, see you later, to those we hold so close to our hearts. We love you, and know, we will see you in heaven.

“ My sincere condolences to Nadines family. I had the pleasure of meeting and getting to know Nadine during my case mgt. work with Argus. She was always so welcoming and hospitable to me when I did my home visits. She was always so very proud of her family and her love shown through her face. May she rest in the holy light.
