

Patrick Gairaud

December 20, 1949 - June 17, 2025

A French citizen by birth, an American citizen by choice, Patrick Gairaud was born in Meknes, Morocco to Lydia Alberola and Louis Gairaud, both who passed away before him as did his sister Marie-France Parra.

He is survived by his wife, Lyndell Gist Gairaud and his children Gwen Benedetto, Tydian Thiam and Aymeric Gairaud. He is also survived by his sister-in-law and brother-in-law Sherry and Frank Nash, by his best friend cousin Denny Allee and the Allee and Levar families.

Patrick was raised in Morocco on property that was farmed by his father and his uncle. He had a great appreciation for nature and loved to hunt. He hunted many times in Africa and later in Colorado. Lions and tigers and bears, oh my! Well, no tigers but a leopard! As a young man Patrick worked in Monte-Carlo where he met and married his wife Lyndell. When their son Aymeric was five, the Gairaud family moved to Pueblo, Colorado to be near his wife's family.

After seven years in Pueblo, they relocated to Florida where Patrick the hunter became Patrick the fisherman. Seven years later they returned to Pueblo.

Patrick loved reading about Africa and hunting. He loved politics and avidly followed current events. He loved anything chocolate but most of all he loved his family, including Daisy, their dog. They will miss him very much.

Many thanks for the exceptional care given to Patrick by all his physicians and Ali and Michelle from Sangre de Cristo Hospice.
