Phil enjoyed going to the flea market and was always buying or selling something. He loved going to Cripple Creek, and his favorite hobby was playing cards every Friday night with his card buddies; Danny, Francis, Bill, Celia, Miguel, Araceli, Alfredo, Veronica, Rico, and Russell. He enjoyed good food, and his favorite meal was enchiladas. Growing up in La Junta, Phil was known for his time playing baseball and softball. His favorite sports teams were the Raiders and Rockies. Phil loved spending time with his family and grandchildren. He will be forever loved and very deeply missed by all those he leaves behind.

God saw Phil was getting tired and a cure was not to be. So he put his arms around him and whispered, "Come with me."

With tearful eyes we watched him suffer, and saw him fade away.

Although we loved him dearly, we could not make him stay.

A golden heart stopped beating; hard working hands put to rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us, he only takes the best.

At the end of life, what really matters is not what we bought but what we built; not what we got but what we shared; not our competence but our character; and not our success, but our significance.

“ Years back I worked with Phil at Imperial Gardens and George McCarthy Funeral Home. He had a great sense of humor and lifted everyone up daily with his humor. Our lives took separate paths and ever now and then I'd run into Phil at a restaurant etc. he never changed always with a smile. I was sorry to learn that Phil had been ill. Can't think of him any other way than young, handsome, smiling and planning his next prank. Phil will be missed by all that knew him. My condolences are extended to his family. May all of your memories comfort you today and always. Phil rest in peace.
