“ It was an absolute privilege and an honor to know Ray. I wish strength to the family in Navigating this painful journey that lays before them. They say "God only takes the best". I can say for certainty Ray was one of the very best.

“ With the passing of both of my parents some time ago. I felt the need to provide this note to Ray's family. I never knew Ray or his family very well. I was off doing other things when he entered the lives my parents, Clifford and Lily Hibpshman. My mother worked for Ray in his Pueblo office in what is now the Wells Fargo Bank building at 8th and Main. My mother drove throughout the congressional district representing Ray at local meetings. My father was at her side in many of them. My parents went door to door on the east side of Pueblo, as well as other communities, campaigning for the candidate they referred to as "their guy". Ray represented the working families of Pueblo and the state and Congressional districts he represented. He will be sorely missed.

We were so sorry to hear about Ray's passing. It was only a month or so ago that we visited briefly at the Legislative Breakfast. We hope you can find comfort in the support of each other, and all the friends who will be at the funeral and who have taken the time to kind words and beautiful memories.

“ As a Rocky Mountain News reporter covering banking legislation in the 1970s, I had met Sen. Ray Kogovsek. My Republican parents, the late George and Cecelia Chronis of Grand Junction, who got to know him as a congressman for their district, thought very highly of him, too..He was one of the good guys.

“ It is hard for me to imagine a non-blood relative that had more of an impact on my life. As a boss, a mentor and a friend, Ray was always someone you could count on. There was nothing he would not do for you. As humble and self deprecating as you can find. Although I will miss him immensely, my heart breaks more for Linda, Lisa, and Toni Rae. We have all lost a truly beautiful human being, but because of him, I have become a better person. I'll miss you Ray.

“ Pueblo has lost its number one ambassador and I have lost a great friend. Ray and I became friends 47 years ago when we served together in the Colorado Legislature and I will miss him. He is one of God's special souls. I could tell many stories about his people skills but, simply stated, he always considered the feelings of others and never took himself too seriously. A true gentleman. I shall treasure our friendship always.

“ Ray was the most kind, generous, dignified, decent, sincere man and politician I've known in a world too populated by phonies and scoundrels. From my early days at The Denver Post and Ray's time in the State Legislature, we've shared many memories, usually over monthly dinners with Linda and Susan in recent years. He was devoted to Pueblo, and Pueblo loved "Kogo." Everyone he met and shared with was better off for the experience. Love and caring peace to Linda. --Chuck Green

Here's to you Ray and to your life well lived. You enhanced my experience at PCH and assisted so many through your public service. Ray is a perfect example of a moral person; being for the other. Thank you to all who helped support this good man.
