“ Richard will forever remain in my heart. He was like a son to me. I will miss him immensely. We have many memories together. I will always remember his beautiful eyes how he would look at me when he would hear my voice. His cute laugh and his grumble. He liked his back rubbed his pop, and yes his duke boys.

I feel and see Richard everywhere we had a daily routine. He liked going places with me. In public folks would ask sometimes is he your son and I would gladly say yes he's my everything. Mr. Richard brought so much joy and happiness to everyone here we will all miss him immensely.

To my sweet sunshine I will speak to you daily, and I know that you were fine you are a whole you can walk you can run and you were there with your father. I will help your sisters take care of your mama. I love her very much watch over her from heaven, Richard , and until we meet again know that I love you forever, my sweet sunshine.

Richard and his family were members of the church I worked for as Music Director. He always had a smile on his face and excitement in his heart when they were at church. He brought so much joy to everyone who was around him. He definitely was a Saint as the definition of a Saint is someone who lives an Ordinary life, extraordinarily well! Rejoice In Paradise my friend.
