“ *He isn't gone forever
Its far from his last run
His journey hasn't ended
It's truly just begun*

*Tears and sadness are a given though
Because he was loved so very much
His memories will live on Through everyone's heart he has touched*

*The bigger picture to remember
As we miss him day after day
His body may have left
But Gods angels are here to stay*

*Though we will always miss his presence
There is piece knowing he can take a rest
Amd there is comfort knowing
God only takes the best*

“ I was shocked. I had gone to high school with Rick. He never changed from high school to being an adult. Always having something to say that would make you laugh. He was always there for people, honest with people and really I think that is what made his business stand out.

One day in our junior year of high school we decided to cut a class and took off in my car. Well I asked him where he lived in Belmont and he told me what street so I drove up the street slow and asked which house when he told me I started to pull in the drive way just to be funny and he hit the floor board of the car and said "Don't stop! my mom is home! I really wasn't going to stop but I finally pulled one on him. We both laughed about it. I had respect for him, he was such a good man. He will be missed dearly.

My thoughts and prayers are with all of the family.

“ Rick,

Your bright smile and awesome sense of humor will be truly missed, you're one of a kind and your personality will never be replaced, the HVAC industry lost a pioneer and a true craftsman, we never stopped looking forward to your next visit to CD Jones, you always threatened to stop doing the work, yet always found yourself knee deep helping someone out. Well CUZ, you're in better hands now and although you may be gone, you will never be forgotten, REST EASY big guy!
