

Richard Lloyd Doman

July 19, 1934 - July 16, 2022

Dick Doman passed away peacefully three days before his 88th birthday on July 16 at 87.9 years of age. Like many things Dick did he left this Earth on his own terms! A longtime resident of Pueblo, he was the son of Marjorie and Herbert Doman who preceded him in death. He is survived by his daughter, Lisa O'Brien, and son Randy Weigel; and six grandchildren, Nina Hornstein, Toni Holly, Alisha Hart, Arriana O'Brien, Amber Hibbard, and Sapphire Funk. He had five great grandchildren, Autiana White, Gaven White, Jennifer Hart, Jack Hart, and Xena Holly. Dick was an avid outdoorsman and bowler. As such, he has asked that in lieu of flowers please make a donation to the Junior Bowlers at Big Daddy's Sunset Bowl. A service to celebrate Dick's life will be held at 11:00am, Thursday, July 21, 2022 at Roselawn Funeral Home Chapel. Online condolences can be made to roselawnpueblo.org

“ I'm going to miss Dick at the lanes. We had so many great conversations about the history of Pueblo bowling. The Greater Pueblo USBC named Dick one of the Legends of Pueblo Bowling. He was truly a legend, and one of the nicest men I knew. RIP, Dick. Tuesdays won't be the same without you.

Dick was one of the most helpful generous people I ever worked for in Pueblo. I had the honor of working for him for 15 years as his housekeeper! He was a blessing to me, I'll miss him! 💖
