

Richard L. Virant

February 13, 1937 - October 18, 2015

Richard L. "V" Virant, 78 of Pueblo passed away unexpectedly Oct 18, 2015. Preceded in death by his infant son, Richard; parents, Tony G. Virant and Mary Virant Hansen; and brother, Gilbert. Survived by his wife of 48 years, Joann Pusedu Virant; brother Larry (Beverly) Virant; numerous nieces and nephews and a host of friends. Richard graduated from Central high school class of 1955. He served in the military services and served the US Army. Richard was employed at Southern Colorado Power Company, CO-Owner of Dairy Duchess and Director of Southern Colorado Travel Service/American Express He was a fly fisherman, and an avid skier in his earlier years, and a wood work craftsman par excellence. He will always be remembered for the great pride he took in developing the acreage of the Old Blue Ribbon in the Stonemoor area where the Virant Compound, the farmhouse, the carriage house, the summer house, private chapel and the Blessed Mother Shrine with the stations of the cross. Richard was a member of the Shrine of St. Therese Parish and grew up in the Slovenian neighborhood. He cherished many memories of his friends and cousins (Pap & Abby). He was especially fond of the wild life which included deer and turkeys. He loved to attend Holy Mass. May the perpetual light shine on him. Life is changed forever. He will always be grateful to many friends for many things. Funeral Service will be 2:00pm, Friday, Oct 23, 2015 at St. Mary's Church. Interment to follow at Roselawn Cemetery.

“ Hello Joann....so sorry to hear of Richard's passing and just want you to know that you and your family are in our prayers. I have good memories when we all worked at the power company and our boss Mr. Stewart. Focus on the good memories that you have to help you through this very difficult time.
