

Ricky Lee Carara

August 11, 1957 - May 2, 2025

Ricky Lee Carara, age 67, went with the angels to Heaven on May 2, 2025, after a very brief illness. He is preceded in death by his father, Ronald and in-laws, Phillip and Betty Albano. Ricky is survived by his loving wife of 45 years, Vicky; mother, Florence; sons, Andrew (Ashley) Carara and Jeffrey Carara; grandchildren, Anthony, Aiden, Adrian and Addison; sister, Renee; brother and sister-in-law Phil and Kathy Albano and his best friend; his chocolate lab, Cody. He is also survived by numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, extended family and friends. Ricky was born and raised in Pueblo Colorado and graduated from South High School in 1975. In 1980 he went on to receive his bachelor's degree from the University of Southern Colorado in Warehouse Management. After graduation he worked for School District 60, retiring with 30 years of service. Most of those years he worked in the warehouse, working his way up to Warehouse Supervisor. Ricky enjoyed spending time with his family. His wife, mother, sons and grandchildren were at the center of his universe. He loved watching the Denver Broncos, fishing, hunting and driving his Corvette. He especially enjoyed playing with and training his dog, Cody. He was very excited about becoming a great grandpa to Lilianna in June. He will be forever loved and deeply missed by all of his family and friends.

“ I can't put into words the depth of this loss.
My dad has forever been my one and only—our rock, our guide, and the heart of our family.

My parents lived the American dream, not for themselves, but for us. They gave us everything they could, and more than we'll ever truly understand.

I'm sharing a video from our childhood, a simple day of us being the “Fantastic Four,” just playing in the snow while my mom and dad were there with us—young, full of life, and together. It's a moment that now feels like a whole world.

It seems like only a moment ago, but the love in those moments was—and always will be—timeless. I will forever miss you dad.
