“ As a boy scout from Troup 309, as a babysittee of Gigi and a former scouting friend of Kevin, I offer my deepest sympathy for your families and the loss of your father and husband. I still remember that picture with a large cigar and scout uniform in summer camps we had many years ago.

“ My memories of Uncle Bob were of his younger years. We took grandpa's boat out for a ride on the lake and one of the oars broke. Not only were we late getting back to the cottage, we arrived with a broken oar. The night before Easter, grandma would curl my hair in rags. Every time Bob would look at me, he would laugh. He took me on one of his dates to the carnival which I really enjoyed. Uncle Bob and I had fun together even when we got in trouble. I do hope he is having fun now.

“ Greetings Betty, Jenny and Kevin!

My sympathy and prayers are with you beloved Bob. I loved his sense of History when he embraced the "Roots" movement of the 70's and reached into his family's past as well as the Czubak side. This would include his hobbies of collecting all kinds of stuff, as a kind of reverence for the past that is considered old fashioned in today's instant information world that gets deleted by a mouse. His artistic talent went into wood carving which was outstanding!

My Dad, your Uncle Ted, who is not into the facebook twitterverse world now, sends his prayers and high regards. When Bob and Uncle Ted talked in conversation, it just kept on going. They enjoyed each others company so much.

Someday his favorite Chicago Bear, Ron Rivera, will be the team coach.

He took in sorrow, especially Gigi's loss and also the collapse of the engineering world with courage. All the best in however the communion of saints works out to happen.

Blessings!

“ Aunt Betty, Kevin and Jennifer,
Uncle Bob will be missed. I will always have those childhood memories that I will cherish. The family picnic's at your place in lake Zurich. Uncle bob manning the grill, and I don't think I will ever go to a White Castle again without remembering the 50 burgers for his birthday. His big smile and bear hugs. My heart and prayers go out to you all.

“ We will miss you dad, all your quirky jokes. I learned to do some carving, take landscape photos and to love lots of animals because all you taught me. We will cheer the Bears on for you this year. I think they are going all the way even without Urlacher as long as no one gets hurts. You're in charge of that up there. Say hit to Gigi, Sam, grandma and grandpa on both sides Tillie and John and all the others waiting for you. We will remember all the smiles and all the fun we had with you. We got a great spot for you to look at with a small lake with lots of jumping fish and a bird sanctuary. Don't worry about mom. Kevin, David and I will take good care of her and not let her get lonely. Sorry I cannot talk her into a dog or a cat. I'll feed the finches while you are gone and keep up the lilacs for you. That Magnolia tree just isn't making it. I bet you feel great and are doing cartwheels. Sorry I can't see that. we will miss you lots but will never forget you.

Love Jenny and David
