

Roberta "Bobbi" Zangaris

January 15, 1956 - January 28, 2018

Roberta "Bobbi" Ann (Dorsey) Zangaris was born in Pueblo January 15th, 1953 and passed away January 28th, 2018 after a brief illness. Preceded in death by her parents, Robert and Josephine Dorsey; brother Greg Dorsey; sister Laura Schwab; and son Jeffrey Zangaris. Survived by son Adam (Lindsey) Zangaris; beloved grandson Kade Zangaris; siblings Jeff (Lisa) Dorsey and Tracy (Randy) Roybal; nieces and nephews Ron (Jaime) Schwab, Aedra (Dominic) Magdaleno, Carrie Dorsey (Shava), Lauren and Jourdan Dorsey, Steffi and Zach Roybal, Tara Adame; Brian Dorsey; and several grand-nieces and grand-nephews. In addition she leaves behind close family friends Joe and Joann Madrid, all of the Bags, and countless numbers of friends whom she cared for deeply. Bobbi was born and raised in Pueblo, graduating from South High School in 1971. She married and had her two children whom she loved and cared for above all else. She worked at Black Hills Energy for 35 years before retiring in 2009. She prided herself on being a strong, independent woman, a fantastic mother, and a good friend. She loved animals of all kinds and found beauty in nature. Her kindness, strength, and humor are the legacy she leaves behind. Words cannot express what she meant to her friends and family. She was the rare person that was beautiful both inside and out. To know her was to love her and while she is no longer with us her incredible spirit will live on. A memorial service celebrating her life will take place on Saturday, February 10th at 1:00 PM in the Roselawn Funeral Home chapel.

“ I was so very sad and shocked to read of your passing. You were too young. It was always fun working with you and you always had a smile on your face. Thank you for the times we shared at the power company and our other group.

“ I will miss so many things about my friend, Bobbi. Remembering the way we chuckled when one of us called the other and said "Hi, Bobbi, this is Bobbi." Our song, 'Takin' care of business' will forever make me smile. The music you shared with me has become some of my very favorite and I will think of you every time I play Corinne Bailey Rae. I will also miss your warped sense of humor and wonderful laugh. The Bags will forever love and miss you! Rest In Peace, Bobbi, and "Thank you for being a friend."

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Bobbi from working together at the electric company. She always had a smile on her face and was so sweet to all of her co-workers. God bless the bags as I know they will miss her deeply. Hugs, love and prayers to her family.

“ *34 years ago I meet a woman I would come to admire and adore. Her Strength, Courage, Grace and Beauty was second to none. I fell in love with her brother and gained siblings that welcomed me as one of them. Bobbi was my deepest inspiration and model of a mother I prayed I would become.
To my nephew and his beautiful wife and amazing son, Kade, I love you and so very proud of you.*

“ Bobbi, I will miss you more than I can put into words. You are like a mother to me. Without you, I wouldn't be the man I am today. Thank you for everything. I also can't put into words how much I love you. I'm crushed that you are gone, but I know that I will one day see you again. I promise to be there for Adam forever. Don't worry about a thing and rest easy. Until we meet again, God bless.

“ My dear friend Bobbi, ladder lady, Spaghetti... what happened to the idea that we were going to be two old bags hanging out together??? We sang so many songs together, had so many laughs together and now you've gone before I could say goodbye and love you my friend 😞 But then I know you're in a grand place with your beloved family . I will always remember you with love ❤️

“ Dear sweet sister friend, our Spag Bag,
I miss you and haven't been able to really wrap my brain around your passing. This came to me, the week you were in hospital:

*Death has come to visit me.
It fills me with uncertainty
It lurks round my door, breaking our heartss
She tells me we all die eventually
Do not struggle, do not resist
Let go of fear, do not insist on
Holding in, or holding on or holding over anymore
Death has come to visit me.
What's our role here? To treat her kind
To try and understand her mind
She takes the best, she takes the worst
She doesn't care who she takes first
Only those needing eternal rest
Unfortunately for us, she takes the best
Death has come to visit me.*

*I will remember you forever my friend. You were always kind to me.

“ My aunt Bobbi was so fun and humorous! She made lemonade out of the lemons of her life and laughed when there was so much to cry about. She had a way of scrambling her words, mixing up what she really wanted to say, but in a funny way, we all understood what she was saying. I'm glad she's at peace and is no longer hurting, but I wish she would've stayed around a little longer...thanks for being my aunt!

Much Love, Carrie

“ From "Consolation"-- Robert Louis Stevenson
He is not dead, this friend -- not dead,
But in the path we mortals tread
Got some few trifling steps ahead
And nearer to the end;
So that you too, once past the bend,
Shall meet again, as face to face, this friend
You fancy dead.

So, wait for me my friend and pal. I will try put away the tears and laugh again. I will miss you so much -- Lyn
