

Ronnie Lee Salazar

October 25, 1960 - November 27, 2015

Ronnie L. Salazar, 65 of Pueblo passed away Nov 28, 2015. Born Oct 25, 1950 in Pueblo, CO and grew up in Salt Creek. Preceded in death by his loving wife, Alberta Pino Salazar; parents, Casey and Erminda Salazar; brother, Tony "Bone"; sister, Elaine; and nephew, Greg. Survived by his loving boys, JR (Delilah), Casey (Sharon); grandchildren, Christina, Casey, Jr., Joaquin, and Julian; brother, Gilbert; sisters, Sadie (Rudy) Hernandez, Shirley (John) Ramos; special sister in law, Frances Pino who was also his care giver; numerous Godchildren, nieces, nephews, friends and relatives. He loved to go hunting, spending time with his grandchildren, dancing, and having a good time. He was deeply loved and will be remembered by many. Visitation will be 2pm – 5pm, today Dec 3, 2015 at Roselawn Funeral Home. Rosary will be 1:30pm with Funeral Service to follow, Fri, Dec 4 2015 at Roselawn Funeral Home Chapel. Interment to follow, Roselawn Cemetery.

Cemetery Details

Rosealwn Cemetery

1706 Roselawn Rd
Pueblo, CO 81006

Previous Events

Visitation

DEC 3. 2:00 PM - 5:00 PM (MT)

Roselawn Funeral Home Chapel
1706 Roselawn Rd
Pueblo, CO 81006

Rosary

DEC 4. 1:30 PM (MT)

Roselawn Funeral Home Chapel
1706 Roselawn Rd
Pueblo, CO 81006

Funeral Service

DEC 4. 2:00 PM (MT)

Roselawn Funeral Home Chapel
1706 Roselawn Rd
Pueblo, CO 81006

Tribute Wall

TB

“ My name is Terry Bobian we lived on the same street El Paso. We were always together Ronnie Louie and Terry. We swam in the canal. I've thought of him and Louie all these years. May he rest in peace

Terry Bobian - June 25, 2024 at 08:48 PM

Edward
Salazar

“ 1 file added to the album Memories Album

Edward Salazar - April 23, 2019 at 04:35 AM