Rose Vera Gurovich, 94, affectionately known as "Grandma Sweetie", born September 1, 1920 passed away on June 13, 2015. She is preceded in death by her husband, John; parents, Carmen and Barbara Califano, John and Patricia Califano, Alfonso, Maria and John Rivas; grandson, Michael Holman; mother and father in law, John and Mary Gurovich, J.R.. Rivas, and other relatives. Rose is survived by children, John (Carla) Gurovich, Sandy (Jim) Holman, Bobbie (Russ) Fortna, and Paula (Ben) O'Doriso; brothers, Carl (Twylia) and Paul (Joy) Califano; also survived by nine grandchildren, and five great grandchildren. Rose worked at Pepsi Bottling Company, operated Vera's Tavern on Evans and worked 20 years at Gus's Place on Elm St, where she was known as "little Vera". She loved to crochet, do arts and crafts and was very involved with her husband's adventures whether it would be making spaghetti and meatballs, doing dishes, or serving food. She will be missed by all that knew her and we will miss that great smile of hers. Visitation will be 9:30am followed by Funeral Service at 10:30am, Friday, June 19, 2015 at Roselawn Funeral Home Chapel. Interment to follow at Roselawn Cemetery. In lieu of flowers please donate to the Pueblo's Alzheimer's Association in her name.
