She loved to go dancing, take trips to Cripple Creek, and enjoyed crocheting almost anything. She loved to cook and feed anyone that would come to visit, as of late she would even try to cook for the residents at Desert Willow. The most selfless and big-hearted woman you'll meet. Rose was very independent working two jobs to take care of her children and would even shovel snow when needed, not so long ago. She left a shining example of love, dedication and respect for her family, and they will cherish these things forever. whenever she had the chance. Rose will be forever loved and deeply missed by all of her family and friends.
