

Roxie McLeod

April 9, 1948 - September 4, 2015

Roxie L. McLeod Ramsey died at St. Mary Corwin Hospital in Pueblo, Co. the evening of September 4th, 2015. Roxie (67) was preceded in death by her parents, Boyde & Lois McLeod and her husband and partner of 27 years, Joseph H. Ramsey Jr. She is survived by a sister-in-law, Virginia Ramsey and brother in-law, Clark Ramsey, a stepdaughter, Ana Andazola-Ramsey, two granddaughters, Celina and Zia Marie and many dear friends across the United States. She attended Arizona State University and later, University of Colorado at Boulder where she published Dreams and Rumors: A History of "Book of the Hopi" in 1994. Roxie was an avid bird watcher and puzzler. She enjoyed a good mystery and was always ready to immerse herself into another novel. Online condolences at roselawnpueblo.com will allow Roxie's loved ones to join in a memorial across the distance. "My troubles are all over, and I am at home...standing with my friends under the apple trees." -Anna Sewell

Tribute Wall

DB

“Roxie was a great friend. We shared many happy days. Particularly we remember a week we spent with Roxie and Joe at a cabin in Arizona. We enjoyed birdwatching, hiking and hauling water to this waterless cabin! RIP dear friend!”

---

Dee & Jerry Baron - September 29, 2015 at 08:01 AM