“ I knew Russ first as a stone mason through my work at McKinney Concrete. Then, Frank and I spent time at the 2 & 9, enjoying Russ and his great humor. Always a gentleman. He will be missed.

“ Whenever we think of Russell we grin and start reviewing all the laughter, fun and good food. He was such a gentleman, a kind man, except when provoked, and had a great sense of humor. Thanks for the good times!

“ Dear Arlene, Tony and Tracy, It is so hard to say goodbye to the ones we love. I pray that the peace of Jesus be with all of you. I can still remember being a flower girl at the wedding !! The great reception at Saint Joseph's Hall and stuffing myself with yummy pizzelles till I couldn't eat anymore. I always think of the fun I had at that wedding, how handsome Russell was looking like a prince with his beautiful bride who looked like a movie star. God blessed them with two beautiful children! I have pictures when mom baby sat Tony looking just like his dad. I love Pizza and grinders the best in town. The Hi Fi club turned into Pinnocchio's. Where my husband entertained as a member in White Lightnin'. Seeing Russell walk in on occasion from next door. I always thought my cousin Arlene married the most handsome man in town. Sweet memories, my heart is with you. I send you my love and pray for you all.... Love from Jane Ellis(Sedlak)
