“ God looked around his garden
and found an empty space.
Then he looked down upon this earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God’s garden must be beautiful
He only takes the best.

I was so deeply saddened by my Aunt Arlenes passing. I always loved her. She was such a beautiful soul. I am so very sorry for your loss.

*Arlene was such a kind and special
I was 12 years old and Arlene and her friend, Gaynee, took me to spend the day with them. I was so impressed at their thoughtfulness. Since I moved back to Pueblo, I have gotten to visit with Arlene. I have told her many times how much I appreciated her. My heartfelt sympathy and prayers go to her family. Jeanie Parker Williamson*
