

Samuel Joseph Davisson II

October 31, 1974 - June 22, 2024

Samuel Joseph Davisson, II ditched his wheelchair and gained his wings on June 22nd, 2024. He was born in Blytheville, Arkansas on October 31st 1974 to Kathy Elisabeth Ellgen and Samuel Joseph Davisson; however his true “parents” were his grandparents Robert and Elizabeth Ellgen. Unfortunately, both had passed away by the time Sam was 20. He raised himself and a lil’ hell with his brother from another mother, Antonio.

Sam was our gentle giant. He was passionate, loving, and generous. He was always prepared for ANYTHING! He would jump to the rescue for anyone at any time. There was no problem that Sam couldn’t solve, whether with brute force or his extreme intelligence.

Sam battled some serious and terrifying health issues over the past five years. He fought every day to provide the best life for his family. He did not want to leave the workforce, and even in his final days continued to work full-time.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Kathy Fowles (nee Ellgen,) grandparents Robert and Elsie Ellgen; and brother-in-law Darrell Simons.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory his wife, Anna Davisson; his daughter who was his absolute pride and joy, Sarah Paepke; his Puppy-sons Obi and Drogo; his Puppy-daughter Bonnie Mae; his sister Mary Simons; his nephew Jacob Davisson; Mother-in-Love Carolyn Ellsworth; Brothers-in-Love James Ellsworth and Arthur Ellsworth; Brothers-from-another-Mother Antonio (Denise) Serna and Matthew Thomason; two half-sisters Debbie Larson and Lisa Pence; and Marty Fowles. Numerous other family and friends will carry Sam's memory and spirit in their hearts as we all mourn the loss of the bright light he brought into this world. Fly free Sam, we love you!

A small gathering celebrating Sam's life will be held at a later date
