

Samuel J. DeVency

September 24, 1932 - January 29, 2023

Samuel J. DeVency, born September 24, 1932, went to be with the Lord on January 29, 2023. Born in Pueblo Colorado, upon graduation from Central High School, Sammy joined the United States Naval Construction Battalion "Seabees" where he was involved in the Korean conflict. He gained skills in the construction trade and built numerous homes in Pueblo and the El Camino area and the Stations of the Cross made from Dogwood at St Joseph's Parish on the Mesa. As an educator at Pueblo Community College Sammy earned his Post Doctorate Degree and became the Dean of Student Administrator where he retired. Sammy is preceded in death by his wife, Antonia (Toni) DeVency; mother and father, Angelina & Tom DeVency; sister, Madaline Spaccamonti; brother-in-law, Joseph DiLuzio; stepchildren, Michael Bouzos and Mary Anne (Bouzos) Siegel. He is survived by his sister, Florence DiLuzio, brother-in-law, Johnny Spaccamonti; grandson Nicholas Bouzos; son-in-law, Patrick Siegel, along with nieces and nephews: Angela (Robert) Parr, Kathy Jo (Paul) DiLuzio Anderson, Randy (Debra) DiLuzio, Katrina (Robert) Dankert and Tommy Spaccamonti. He will always be remembered as a consummate builder and proud veteran who enjoyed telling stories with his family and friends over coffee and by his keen sense of humor, wit, laughter and love for family and life. Special thanks to New Century Hospice. At his request there will be a private family service. Online condolences can be made at roselawnpueblo.org

“ Sam hired me as his Admin Assistant when he was Dean of the Vocational Technology Division at PCC. That was one of the best jobs I ever had. Our Division had awesome teachers and we all worked so well together. This was because of Sam's leadership. Sam & I remained friends after he retired. He was so funny and kind. Sam, you were the boss and friend that I was so privileged to have. Rest in peace Dr. DeVcenty!!
