

Sunserea D. McClelland

August 21, 1972 - March 7, 2016

Sunserea McClelland died unexpectedly in her home on March 7, 2016. She leaves behind her mother, Jan Morgan; sister, Shannon Anderson; brother, Graham Hime; and two sons, Jaysun and Joshua McClelland. Many called her "Sunny" because she could always brighten anyone's day with her presence. The world will be a darker place without her. A Memorial Service will be 1:00pm, Friday, March 25, 2016 at Roselawn Funeral Home Chapel.

“ Knowing you as a child through to adulthood allowed me to know your authentic self fully in tact. Your intelligent humor, warm and loving heart, and light as bright as the sun is the memory I will keep of you. Thank you for the gift of you... Love to your family and friends.

“ Sunserea,.....her name said it all. Sunny she was, that she had even when she was a child. It only seems yesterday that we all lived in Leadville, and you children were all small. So so saddened to lose you, but I find peace knowing that you are now in a better place. Honey, all that knew you will surely miss you.

“ My Dear Sweet Sunserea, my heart aches that you are gone. I will never be able to call you, see you again or to hear any of your jokes that crack me up. I will only be able to in the memories of you in my mind and yes there are many. I've been so blessed to have known you over the past 28 years and I have been so proud of the person you have become. I'm sure you are making everyone in Heaven laugh. Miss you and Love you bunches.

“ We wish for just one more day to show our love, but just one more day would never be enough. The hardest part of being so far away is missing you while you were here to miss me back.

“ My deepest condolences and heartfelt prayers go out to the family of such a beautiful soul. Sunserea was always the one to lend a helping hand or shoulder to cry on. She knew the right words to say to help you through whatever you had going on. Heaven gained a beautiful angel. Rest easy in paradise, I know my brother will take care of you. Love you Sunshine
