Tammy was a good friend of the Sheriff's courier team. She always arranged events like the breakfast for all the couriers. When John Parmenter passed away it was Tammy who arranged a special courier meeting and breakfast at the Hen House to memorialize John as also being at John's side at the hospice.

I am writing this with a heavy heart. Tammy always had a hug for me and others. She was a people person, and we will miss her so much. Go with the Lord Tammy and I will see you at the other side. Bless you sweet Tammy.
