“ I worked with Terri at The Incline Apartments, and Terri always knew how to make all the residents who lived there feel loved and appreciated. No judgment from Terri. She truly loved people and loved helping them. She was a heck of a great property manager, too! I still remember a resident coming up to me and telling me that Terri was such a welcoming friend and how she treated the residents like family. I also remember when Terri helped decorate the model unit and us girls had so much fun with it. Terri, you will be greatly missed.

“ Here is one of Hundred's— Terri & Christian came over for a barbecue/swim day 2- summers ago. Well our neighbor came over and was joining us for an evening cocktail in the back yard when Terri somehow got the idea to soak gummy worms in Jack Daniels! Terri and Ernie ate a whole bowl of these, when Terri and Christian went to bed that nite at our house, Terri woke in the wee hours to not feeling well... (go figure) anyways she proceeded to get up, come down stairs go outside in the back yard to get cool fresh air because according to her she was “ hot, & the room was spinning” she sat in a lawn chair, that did t help then went & soaked her arms in the pool, she kept putting them in the water deeper & deeper til according to her... and her drastic gift of Embellishing ... she Almost pulled a Whitney Houston in our Pool! It's all we heard about in the morning when we all got up, she loved a Good Funny Story to tell, as we were all supposed to know this was going on? It became a running joke ever since don't let Terri drink around any kind of water for fear of pulling the “ Whitney” 🤪 (Plz no offense to Whitney Houston Fans her death was tragic, but if you knew Terri you can soooo picture this and her telling the recap of the night). 😊❤️😊❤️
