

Tim J. Johnson

July 10, 1949 - January 28, 2022

Tim Johnson, 72, of Pueblo, left us peacefully on January 28, 2022, after enjoying an evening of hockey with his two sons, one of his favorite pass times next to fishing. Tim is survived by his wife of 42 years, Elena, sons Todd and Jeffrey, sister Debbie (Dave) Lockett, brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Clarence (Marie) Scarberry, and numerous nephews, their spouses, and children. Tim was employed by Pueblo School District 60 until he retired in 1996 at which time, he and his family moved to Colorado City where they owned and operated the Pueblo South/Colorado City KOA Kampground until 2016. During this time, they were the proud recipients of numerous awards from the KOA organization, and in 2009, they were named Greenhorn Valley Chamber of Commerce Business of the year. Services for Tim will be held Saturday, February 12th, 11:00 a.m. at Christ the King Catholic Church, 1708 Horseshoe Drive in Pueblo. Reception will follow in the church hall.

“ I don't know where to start in paying tribute to Tim. He and Elena, Todd, and Jeff, were the family we needed when our dad passed away in 2007. Tim was always smiling. His chuckle was one of the greatest sounds in the world. The way his bright blue eyes would light up when there was chocolate. Or how his crossed arms at a game were a sign of comfort and happiness. He was a warm and gentle man, and accepted people for who they were. Tim, I know heaven must be wonderful, but you are greatly missed. Nene, Todd, Jeff- love you guys.

“ Herb and I want to send our condolences to you, Elena, as well as Todd and Jeff. Tim holds a special spot in our memories of “life on the road” when we worked at the KOA for you. Our prayers are with you as you adjust to life as it is now. May God's peace give you rest.
