“ My most cherished friend: I loved growing with you in our youth and growing with you in our adult lives, you always loved me as I will always love you.

I know if you could say anything you would say these words to your family and loved ones, for you I pass this along. Until we meet again!

I'm Free

by Shannon Lee Moseley

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've found now peace at the end of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will I miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
don't lengthen your time with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now – He set me free.*

Peace and Light

“ My very best friend for over a decade. She was "Aunt Tracey" to my kids. She was always so supportive of my family. I have so many incredible memories of her. She had the BEST sense of humor. Full of sarcasm, absolutely hilarious and a genuine "girly girl". Always dressed to impress, classy, wicked smart, and beautiful inside and out. I will never forget her smile. She lit up a room. She genuinely cared about the welfare of others. Brutally honest when she needed to be, she never sugar-coated anything. Tracey was a phenomenal friend to me and I will never forget her. We used to always joke about growing old together; a couple old betties full of sarcasm and stubbornness.. We would say we'll be friends until we are old and senile and then we will be new friends! This girl was my rock. She helped me get through some pretty tough times and because of her, I know that a friendship like this is very rare and comes along once in a lifetime. I miss her like crazy.
