“ I am so sad to see this. I loved our shopping trips together and eating out. I so have missed you and wished I knew of your passing. I am so sad. Boy, did we love to shop together. And then you would worry about how you spent to much but it would be ok you said. You were my bestie as we would call each other. I am deeply sad and sorry I didn't get to go to your funeral to say goodbye. See you soon my sweet friend. Love Liz

I remember Val in all the stages of the pictures shown. We literally grew up together. From first grade to present time. She was so beautiful, fun, kind and loving to all. Whenever I heard something funny or anything that was news to me, I would say to myself, "I can't wait to tell Val". We had a few spats in those years, but we never stayed mad. I will miss you so much, my sis. Thanks for giving us Steven, Adam, Melissa and the beautiful children (people) that came with them. Our song in Jr. High school was sung by us with our hairbrushes for the microphone. 'Midnight Train to Georgia' or any of Gladys Knight songs. I will always love and miss you so much. You caught the midnight train first. 😞😭🙏💕

“ I'm going to miss our random days together. One of my favorites is the time you tried to dye my hair with blueberries. We mashed an entire bowl and soaked my hair. It obviously didn't work but we thought it was so fun and had juice EVERYWHERE. We were like best friends coming up with wild ideas of stuff to do. I will miss you everyday for the rest of my life.
